

Dear Parent and Camper:

The ministry and mission of Gretna Glen Camp & Retreat Center is to provide a sacred place away from the busy world where all may gather, play, pray, learn and grow in their relationships with Jesus Christ, with others, and with themselves.

We present to you these guidelines concerning camper behavior in order to ensure that everyone has an exciting and fulfilling week at Gretna Glen. Please review and sign this covenant.

I understand as a camper, I am a part of community. Because of this I agree to:

- Bring to camp only those things which are allowed.
- Help to make the agreements which will guide my behavior within our group.
- Be kind and courteous to others, listening respectfully to what they have to say.
- Respect other people's things and use them ONLY if they give me permission.
- Not use foul language or words that may hurt others.
- Find mature and peaceful ways to solve any problems or disagreements (physical and/or verbal aggression is not tolerated and campers will be sent home).

I understand as a camper, that I have a part in having a successful week at camp.

Because of this I agree to:

- Follow all rules that are presented to me to the best of my ability.
- Actively participate in all events when physically able.
- Stay with my group at all times unless given other instructions.
- Let my counselors know if I have a problem, concern, or feel homesick.
- Care for myself by being quiet and resting during Rollover and after lights out.
- Take responsibility for my actions and accept the consequences of my behavior.
- Seek the good and the positive in everything.

I have read these rules, signed the covenant, and understand that I (my camper) may be asked to leave camp if I (my child) cannot abide by the rules of this covenant.
